EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

☒ 1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

☐ 2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.

☐ 3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.] _____

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

☐ 4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

CHAPTER 7 BANKRUPTCY FLAT FEE AGREEMENT

SYLVIA FUENTES hereafter referred to as "client", agree to retain the Law Office of Amanda T. Adams to represent client's interest in or arising out of a Bankruptcy to be filed in the Division of the Northern District of Illinois, entitled: In re SYLVIA FUENTES.

The financial terms of this legal representation will be that client will pay to attorney $1,000.00 as a flat fee for legal services, which includes an Adversary Proceeding against the U.S./Internal Revenue Service. In addition, client agrees to pay $335.00 which is the federal court's filing fee, and reimburse attorney for the best case software to download 3 credit reports from Suite Solutions, which is estimated to cost between 50 and 100 dollars. If client decides to file an Adversary Petition to determine whether payment of student loans would cause an undue hardship, an additional fee of $335.00 to cover the new filing fee will be required. Attorney Adams will be primarily responsible for most paperwork and Atty Adams may cover the 341 Meeting of Creditors. Said retainer will be earned by attorney by accepting the case. The retainer will be deposited into attorney's business office account and used immediately by attorney for general purposes, and will not be deposited into the trust account. This is in the best interests of the client due to efficiencies in saving time and effort (for both client and attorney) to authorize and transfer funds, etc., and the client having access to legal services immediately, without delay, without waiting for funds to be available by banking rules/clear, transfer, etc.. If there is any remaining balance due herein shall be earned upon the earlier of the receipt of payment or the filing of said bankruptcy petition. All amounts due herein shall be paid as soon as practical, but regardless must be paid in full prior to the first meeting of the creditors. If full payment is not received by attorney, attorney shall continue the first meeting of the creditors if possible. If it is not possible to continue the first meeting of the creditors client instructs attorney to dismiss the bankruptcy petition.

There could be other fees/costs that are higher, though not anticipated at the time of the execution of the instant fee agreement, which would in turn be paid by client to attorney. There shall not be a refund of any portion of the fees unless at attorney discretion, regardless of the reason same is not completed, and the following conditions apply as indicated:

This flat fee for legal services and expenses presumes an uncontested Chapter 7 Bankruptcy with the client supplying all necessary information. Any adverse actions, actual or potential, additional negotiations with creditors, amended petitions, or additional efforts are not considered part of an uncontested matter. Filing an Amended Petition costs a flat fee of $150.00, including legal and court costs.

If client does not wish to incur additional expenses with attorney, client shall consent to withdrawal of attorney from responsibility for the case. If any additional services are required, including but not limited to negotiating, filing or receiving adverse actions, motions, petitions, etc., additional terms apply as indicated herein. All time will be accumulated and billed at the applicable hourly rate described below. Any amounts in time and expenses incurred exceeding the retainer, will be billed monthly, commencing the first month after the time and expenses exceeds the amount of the retainer paid. Any time or expense incurred as a result of the necessity of filing motions, attending hearings, or trial, or preparing for same will be accumulated and billed at an hourly rate as follows:

Attorneys..... $200.00 Amanda T. Adams

The total time at the rate described, plus any additional expenses, will be totaled and billed accordingly in excess of the original retainer. The minimum increment of time to be charged is two-tenths of an hour.

For example: If attorney should make or receive a telephone call in regard to client's case, client would be charged 12 minutes of time even though the actual phone call may have taken less than 12 minutes. Similarly, if that phone call took more than 12 minutes, but 18 minutes or less, client would be charged an additional one-tenth hour of time.

Client agrees to reimburse attorney for expenses incurred on client's behalf, such as, but not limited to, filing fees, deposition expenses, photocopying expenses, long distance telephone costs, traveling expenses, and employment and testimony of expert witnesses, accountants and appraisers, if these expenses are incurred.

For example: If attorney, or a clerk or support staff, should make or receive a telephone call or message in regard to client's case, client would be charged 12 minutes of time even though the actual phone call may have taken less than 12 minutes. Similarly, if that phone call took more than 12 minutes, but 18 minutes or less, client would be charged an additional tenth hour of time.

Client agrees to reimburse attorney for expenses incurred on client's behalf, such as, but not limited to, filing fees, deposition expenses, printing expenses, photocopying expenses, facsimile expenses, long distance telephone costs, traveling expenses, and employment and testimony of expert witnesses, accountants and appraisers, if these expenses are incurred.

Attorney reserves the right to delegate any work on this matter to any personnel or agents of his office.

Any fees or expenses incurred which exceed the retainer will be billed monthly, commencing the month after the sums exceed the retainer. Client is expected to make regular payments on these monthly statements until the case is concluded, at which time client will have thirty (30) days from the date of the conclusion of the case to make final payment of all fees and costs incurred. In the event that any amount of fees or costs incurred in this matter are unpaid after thirty (30) days from the date of the conclusion of client's case, client will be assessed a finance charge of 1.5% per month on any remaining balance, until the balance is paid in full.

Judgments Entered: If there is a judgment entered in favor of attorney for past services, the application of payments made will be at the sole discretion of attorney, presumably to pay the current amounts due first, then to be applied to interest, costs and prior judgment. Any subsequent fee agreement between the parties shall convert the hourly rate for all prior contracts to the higher current rate as of the date of the newer contract.

Advance Payment Retainer: Pursuant to Dowling vs Chicago Options Associates, Inc., 226 Ill.2d 277, 875 N.E.2d 1012 (2007), client is advised of the option to have their funds paid into a "security payment retainer". Client understands that it is the decision of the client which type of retainer to use, at client's sole discretion. The retainer herein is an "advance payment retainer", not a "security payment retainer", and not a "classic retainer". If a "security payment retainer" is desired at any time, client needs to inform attorney of that fact, make payments as described, and execute additional documents to effectuate same. The balance due to attorney must be paid in full for the office account, and an additional $10,000 "security payment retainer" be paid into IOLTA trust, and payments made to attorney from said "security payment retainer" two times per month, and when the balance held by attorney in trust falls below $2,000 then an additional $5,000 will be required to be paid within seven calendar days. If any form of electronic payment is used to make said "security payment retainer" then it shall work the same way, except that the additional $5,000 payment will be made after the balance being held falls below $5,000. If client desires a "security payment retainer" and does not timely make/authorize all payments in/out of trust, attorney will withdraw.

Attorney has agreed to represent client based on client's representation of the facts. Attorney has reserved the right to investigate the claim and withdraw from representation in the event attorney's investigation reveals that the facts are materially different from the information claim has relayed to attorney. Attorney reserves the right to terminate the attorney-client relationship for any of the following reasons:

- (1) Client's non-payment of fees or costs;
- (2) Client's uncooperative behavior or failure to cooperate and comply fully with all reasonable requests of attorney in reference to the matter; or
- (3) Client's engaging in conduct which renders it unreasonably difficult for attorney to carry out the purposes of his employment.

In case of disagreement between the parties respecting any fees/expenses in regards this agreement the parties jointly agree they shall appoint an arbitrator. All distinctions between an arbitrator and mediator are irrelevant for the purposes of this agreement. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding between the parties. The parties agree to use the ISBA Voluntary Fee Arbitration Committee because the parties believe the services are available free of charge. All arbitration costs that do exist will be borne equally between the parties. After reasonable attempts to resolve the dispute either party may invoke the arbitration clause with written notice to the other party. If either party refuses to use the ISBA Voluntary Fee Arbitration Committee, or the arbitration process recommended by the arbitrator, the party shall do so in writing, and by doing so that party shall be solely responsible for the costs of the arbitrator and for any attorney's fees (including the other party's attorney) and any court costs which may result concerning the disputed fees. Non-payment of fees/expenses due by client is not a dispute that falls within this clause.

If client has an objection to any fees/expenses client agrees to inform attorney within 30 days of the date of the statement. If client does not inform attorney within 30 days client agrees there is no dispute as to the amount, or as to particular fees/expenses. The purpose of the 30 day agreement is to allow any disputes to be resolved in a timely manner to avoid stale claims and memories.

Attorney and/or her staff make no representations, promises, guarantees or warranties as to a successful outcome of this matter.

This fee agreement has been discussed fully and openly between clients and attorney and all parties hereto understand completely the terms and conditions of this fee agreement.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.
